

Tony F. Sanchez

Tony F. Sanchez III, board treasurer, joined NV Energy in 2007 as the Senior Vice President of Public Policy and External Affairs, where he oversees the organization's government, regulatory, communications, and community involvement strategies. Before joining NV Energy, he practiced law for 10 years for the law firm of Jones Vargas, representing a diverse portfolio of renewable and other energy companies including NV Energy, Reliant Energy, Solargenix/Acciona, and Sempra Energy. Previously, he served as Executive Assistant to then-Nevada Governor Bob Miller, Assistant General Counsel for the Nevada Public Utilities Commission, and Associate Legislative Counsel handling energy and natural resource issues for Nevada's then-U.S. Senator Richard H. Bryan in Washington, D.C. Mr. Sanchez recently retired from the Latin Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors after 10 years of service. He currently serves on the Clark County Public Education Foundation and the Nevada Partnership for Homeless Youth. Mr. Sanchez holds a bachelor's in political science from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas, and a J.D. from Arizona State University College of Law.
